

Faringdon Tourist Information Children's Trail

In the Market Square

Walk towards All Saints Church.

Carry on up Church Street, turn left down Radcot Road. (Walk on the footpath on the right)

Walk down the road until you see the statue on the left. (in the grounds of Faringdon House)

Turn and walk back up the hill.

At the road junction turn left.

Turn right into Coach lane.

Walk to the end of Coach Lane

Turn right into London Street.

Walk down London Street and back to Market Place.

Answers to all the questions can be found by following the trail.

1. What colour is the clock face on All Saints Church?
2. How many benches are there in the church yard?
3. Walk down Radcot Rd, on the left there is a statue. How many faces does it have?
4. On your way back up the hill look in the field. Are there any animals? What are they and how many?
5. The bench on the left in Coach Lane Cemetery, who is it in memory of?
6. What important, law keeping, building used to be in Coach Lane and is now private housing?
7. The pub opposite the end of Coach Lane, what is it called?
8. Look at the first shop on the left side of London Street. What is it called? What colour is the paint work?
9. What animal lives above the door of no. 27 London Street?
10. Back in the Market Place. How many pillars hold up the Old Town Hall?