Notes for ALGERNON HEBER-PERCY:

Sir Algernon Eustace Hugh Heber-Percy, KCVO (born 2 January 1944) is a British landowner, farmer and public official.

Heber-Percy was born in 1944, to Daphne Parker Bowles and the army officer Brigadier Algernon George William Heber-Percy (1904–1961), who remodelled a large part of the gardens at the Heber-Percy family's ancestral home, Hodnet Hall, Shropshire.[1][2][3]

Having served in the Army for four years,[1] Heber-Percy returned to live in Hodnet Hall in 1966; he studied agriculture at a local college and has managed the family's farming estates thereafter. He has also extensively renovated the house with his wife Jane,[4] daughter of the 3rd Viscount Leverhulme.[1] He has been involved in a number of organisations, including periods as a trustee of the National Gardens Scheme and as a member of the National Trust's regional committee. Since 1988, he has been President of the Shropshire and Mid Wales Hospice, now called Severn Hospice. In 1986, he was appointed a Deputy Lieutenant for Shropshire and served as High Sheriff for the 1987–88 year; he was appointed Vice-Lord Lieutenant in 1990 and then served as Lord Lieutenant from 1996 to 2019.[1]

Heber-Percy retired as Lord Lieutenant in January 2019, at the age of 75.[5] He had been appointed a Knight Commander of the Royal Victorian Order in 2014.[1]
