Bellamy	Hugh	1825	A tribute to departed worth and to perpetuate whilst this frail monument endures the remembrance of a most amiable, affectionate and singularly promising youth. Joseph Bowles L.L.D has caused this stone to be inscribed with the name of Hugh Bellamy whose life was prematurely terminated by a severe illness which he supported with patience and resignation on 27th February 1825 in the 14th year of his age. He was the third son of John Bellamy esquire clerk of Assizes of the Oxford circuit who has kindly gratified the feeling of the preceptor by yielding to them the privilege of erecting this stone to the memory of a deservedly worthy pupil. Let the young who promise themselves many years to come remember his early death and emulate his fair example.			B12	1	W
