

Walk 6 Great Coxwell and Coleshill

approximately 6 miles/9.6km

WALK DESCRIPTION
 An easy, pleasant walk through mostly flat, open countryside with well marked paths and tracks. There is parking for several cars at the start of the walk on the dead end road in Great Coxwell. At Coleshill there is a shop and café, or the Radnor Arms for refreshment.

This box contains details required to be shown on the card by the Ordnance Survey as part of their licence.....

You can extend this walk by starting from Faringdon, or shorten the walk by turning right at Ashen Copse Farm and walk towards the rear of Colleymore Farm. At Ashencroft farm the walk links with the D'Arcy Dalton Way.

To start from Faringdon walk up Coxwell St and Coxwell Rd and along the path by the (former A420 Swindon) road until, past the mini roundabout, you reach a footpath on the right to Oakfield. Continue until you reach the road again, turn right and then left at the junction and walk down through the village.

1) Drive to Gt Coxwell. At the junction in the village turn left, drive down to nearly the end of the village and park somewhere on the road. Take the marked footpath right (signed Coleshill 2.5 miles) next to Wrekin Cottage. Go over the stile and follow the waymarked sign right round the field boundary (ignore first stile in the corner of the field) to the next stile, over a small bridge crossing a stream and over a second stile.
